

Invitation to 62nd FCEM World Congress in Taiwan

Dear Women Entrepreneurs,

It is my great honor and pleasure to welcome you joining the upcoming 62nd FCEM World Congress in Taipei, Taiwan. I hope you all will have the opportunities to explore this beautiful country, "Formosa". From September 21st to 24th 2014, we have been prepared plentiful programs of networking opportunities, like B2B programs, exhibition booths, panel discussions, and speeches from female celebrities. President Ma of Republic of China, Taiwan will also give a speech for all FCEM registrants. We also arrange several tours (National Palace Museum – a popular place to visit for tourists) and activities that will both inspire and entertain our guests.

Taiwan, as part of Asia-Pacific region, is a renowned for its innovations and technologies. Blessed by well-developed democracy and business friendly environments, Taiwan is a prosperous country with diverse cultures. Taiwan is the "Gateway" to the Asian continent given its excellent location and close links with Asia-Pacific countries such as China, Japan, South Korea, Thailand, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, and other countries, and also with a vast presence of Taiwanese enterprises across all Asia countries.

TWEA (Taiwanese Women's Entrepreneurs Association) is delighted to be chosen to host the 62nd FCEM World Congress 2014. For those looking to explore this part of the globe, we aim to provide you all-around and up-to-date business insights by the Congress keynote addressers and panelists from the Asian region, as well as sharing with you stories of the top-sellers across business sectors in Taiwan. We will give you a profitable and memorable visit while you stay in Taiwan Formosa, an enchanting country by its Nature, People, and Marketability.

All registrants will receive a gift bag contain a scarf, a pin, a badge with holder. For further information about the 62nd World Congress of FCEM, please visit event website: www.fcem-taiwan2014.com

You are cordially invited with your members and international partners, to widely distribute this information and we very much look forward to seeing you at the 62nd World Congress of FCEM!
